

American-Russian Chamber of Commerce of Minnesota (ARCCoM)
First Inaugural Workshop
Minneapolis – St Paul, Minnesota, October 8-10, 2015

ARCCoM is a non-profit non-political association which has been established to promote business partnership ,academic and cultural exchange between USA, Russia and Russian speaking organizations and communities around the world. The workshop is organized in partnership with Minnesota Trade Office, Russian Trade Mission in USA and Museum of Russian Art.

The first day of the workshop (October 8, Thursday) is reserved for presentations from the participants, who are advised to make their presentations in the form of proposals for potential partners in USA, if they are from Russia, or vice versa. The second day of the meeting (October 9th, Friday) is devoted to round table and site visits. On the third day (October 10th, Saturday) the Organizers offer social and networking events: Minnetonka lake cruse and private reception in the Museum of Russian Art.

For further details and registration, please, visit our web site

<https://www.arccom.org>

